These Are Our Favorite Things

During our four years at Pinkerton
there have been favorite times:
moments, days, seasons,
and perhaps best of all,
our senior year.
There have been favorite places:
the library, the Oval,
and our senior steps,
and favorite people:
friends, faculty, and administration.
The CRITIC has become a composite of our favorite things.
In the years to come,
we will look back
on the Freshman Reception,
the traditional tower bell,
the games, the rallies, the plays,
and the Corn Roast.
We envy future Freshman classes who have yet to experience the favorite things that are now for us mere memory.

DEDICATION

Kyriaki J. Goranites

To you, Miss Goranites, we, the Class of 1969, dedicate our yearbook. We appreciate your interest in us as a class; we thank you for your enthusiastic service as teacher, friend, and advisor.

APPRECIATION

Our favorite times at Pinkerton were not accidental successes. Every gathering from our first class meeting to graduation day was planned by faculty who were eager to see the Class of '69 become a superlative group. To those faculty members and former class advisors who have contributed their help far beyond any call of duty, we are grateful. In appreciation we dedicate this page to four of our favorite people.

Mrs. Ruth G. Wheeler, Secretary

Administration

The Class of 1969 is grateful to the administration for their part in our Pinkerton years; they will be numbered among our favorite people.

Mr. Elmer R. Knowles, Vice Principal

Mr. John L. Muller

Faculty

Pinkerton's faculty have come to be some of our favorite people. The Class of '69 recognizes and thanks the dedicated men and women who have served as teachers, coaches, and class and club advisors. They have made possible the many activities that have become some of our most pleasant memories of the Academy. For this, we salute them!

1969's FAVORITE EXPRESSIONS

Is it soup yet?	This kid's gonna' go places.
Wicked.	A. and Dub.
Per se . . .	Unbelievable.
Back in Tulsa . . .	All ri-i-ght.
Mighty fine.	Any Seniors . . .?
No quibbling.	Yeah.
Can we have a little common courtesy?	Joe Cupcake.
Rock of Ages	Huh?
This is what? An atom, right?	Wasn't racing, Officer, wasn't racing.
That's a little fuzzy.	We will leave by the outside door.
Keene, Plymouth, or U.N.H.?	Wow.
Y'know . . .	Once again, as I said before . . .
Let's do it with radians.	Sharp.
Shut it.	Trim those sideburns.
Wrecked ya.	Want a walnetto?
Mr. Murray says . . .	Gross.
Go to your room.	Unreal.
Motivation.

activities

*A list of Pinkerton activities is a roster
of favorite things.
Each is special to some;
many hold memories for all of us.*

Critic Staff

Our '69 Critic is the combined effort of three hard-working staffs—literary, business, and typing. All have spent many hours in pursuit of their goal to make the book truly "superlative" in keeping with the spirit of the class.

The literary staff has selected the theme and done its best to present it through pictures and copy.

The business staff has made this presentation of our "favorite things" financially possible. We thank our patrons and sponsors for their generous response.

The typists have worked equally hard to prepare the final copy for the printer.

Nancy Wuerker, Editor — Jonathan Hicks, Business Manager

Literary Staff

Seated: L. Danielson, D. Hampton, T. Drake, T. Samara, M. Low, G. Quimby.
Standing: R. Joyce, W. Cousins, L. Loiselle, L. Hamer.

ASSISTANT EDITORS: Terry Drake,
Wayne Cousins (absent).

TYPISTS: Seated: Betty Gorton,
Head Typist, Standing: Diane Cousins,
Martha Peterson, Carol Byrne, Patricia Fontaine.

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS, Seated: Jeanne Cutter, Sally Sutton, Standing: Robin Cummings.

Meeting at 12:20. Bring your lunch.

BUSINESS STAFF, Front Row: K. Fitzgerald, D. Noel, B. Bennett, C. Leighton, L. Crocker, S. Sutton, M. Traynor. Second Row: J. Cutter, D. Orcutt, J. Kelleher, J. Camp, H. Hamlett, R. Cummings. Third Row: J. Hicks, J. Laycock, N. McCarty, D. Stetson, R. Stacy. Standing: C. Dill, M. Clayton, D. Baker, R. Perry.

Front Row: D. DeSisto, B. Richardson, T. Dubeau, Mr. Hackler, D. Taber, P. Hatfield, N. McCarty. Second Row: K.

Gillespie, C. Staples, J. Brooks, S. Jones, N. King, D. Pratt, M. St. Germaine.

Student Council

The Student Council is composed of two elected students from each class and the President and Vice President of each class. Homeroom Representatives are a new addition to the Council this year. These students are allowed to attend meetings, voice their opinions, and in turn, relate information back to the students. Under the leadership of Mr. Hackler, the Student Council has established a democratic form of life at the Academy by improving communication between the administration, the faculty, and the students.

Student Council Home Room Representatives

OFFICERS: Timothy Dubeau, President; Darla Taber, Secretary; Normand McCarty, Treasurer; T. Samara, Vice President (absent).

N.H.S. Honors Study

N.H.S. OFFICERS: Sharon Eddy, Secretary; Leonard Loiselle, Treasurer; Jonathan Hicks, President; Nancy Wuerker, Vice President (absent).

National Honor Society

In being chosen for National Honor Society membership, a student receives one of the highest honors that Pinkerton Academy can confer. But once the induction ceremonies are over, the new member is caught up in an active service organization. N.H.S. projects at present include the book fair, a tutoring service, sponsoring a child over-seas and working for Dollars for Scholars. Dress-Down Days, another N.H.S. innovation, have become one of Pinkerton's "favorite things."

Seated: J. Gustafson, R. St. Cyr, Miss Beane, A. McKone, G. Quimby, Standing: J. Hicks, T. Samara, L. Loiselle, C. Byrne, S. Eddy.

Letterwomen

The Letterwomen's Society is made up of girls who have participated in many school activities. Striving to become a Letterwoman is one of the oldest traditions at Pinkerton.

Duties consist of selling beanies and shakers, supervising assemblies, and selling tickets at football and basketball games.

All members are proud to wear Pinkerton letters and to be leaders in the school.

Mr. Noseworthy's Ticket Sellers

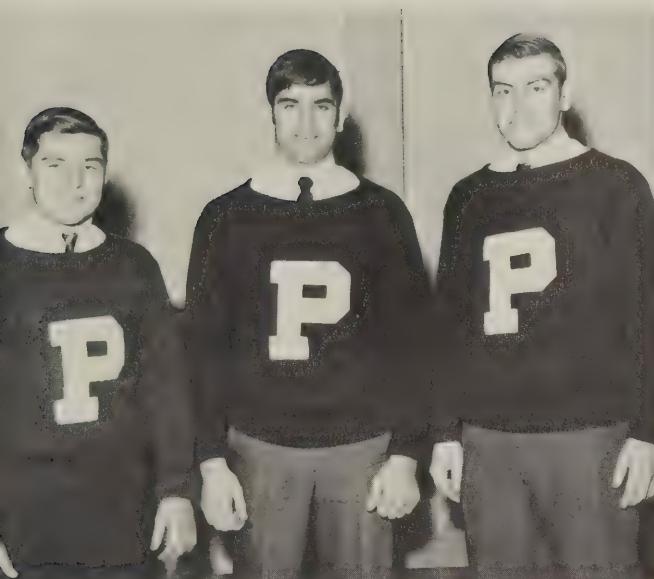

OFFICERS: Sally Sutton, Secretary-Treasurer; Brenda Bolster, President; Martha Low, Vice President.

Front Row: Miss Abbott, J. Chase, S. Sutton, B. Bolster, M. Low, D. Taber. Second Row: D. Hampton, D. Brusky, C.

Byrne, R. St. Cyr, L. Conway, S. Powers.

Lettermen

OFFICERS: Jon Zirpolo, Vice President; Glen Fellows, President; James Fenton, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Lettermen's Association is composed of boys who have earned their letter in a major sport. Under the supervision of Athletic Director Weston Root, the boys serve Pinkerton by supervising the cafeteria and assisting at assemblies. The Lettermen set fine examples to the boys at the Academy.

It was a good season.

Front Row: Mr. Root, S. Monas, N. McCarty, J. Pieroni, J. Zirpolo, G. Fellows, J. Fenton, D. Giguere, R. McCarty. Second Row: G. Moynihan, T. Dubeau, T. Hattin, D. Good-

Band and Glee Club

Pinkerton Academy's Band is more than appears to the public eye. Behind its fine performances at football games, parades and concerts, there are many hours spent practicing at home and at school. We are proud to call the P. A. Band one of our favorite things.

The Dance Band

The Pinkerton Glee Club

Under the direction of Mr. Hutchins, this year's Glee Club practiced long and hard for their two performances. The Christmas and Spring Concerts were certainly memorable, testifying to the merit of enthusiastic rehearsals. Also contributing to this year's success were the popular arrangements of today's hit tunes.

Majorettes & Color Guard

J. V. MAJORETTES, Kneeling (1st): J. MacMillan, (2nd): N. Danielson, (captain) Standing: D. Baker, P. Clark, C. Manning, L. Crabb, V. Hampson.

The Pinkerton Majorettes and their routines, supervised by Patricia Mills, remind us of our favorite football games and half-times. Swords, fire, hoops, and batons added to the enjoyment of their sparkling routines. Besides the football games, the Majorettes performed in parades and in the spring concert.

Carrying their flags and banners high, the Color Guard triumphantly led the band to its many games and parades. With pride and precision they carried the flags of the United States and New Hampshire, and the P. A. Banner.

MAJORETTES, Clockwise: C. Marashio, J. Armstrong, J. Gratton, J. Bover, N. Mitchell, W. Johnson. Center: S. Fredrickson.

Cheerleaders

The main purpose of the cheerleaders is to promote school spirit and morale at athletic competitions. However, cheering includes more than just leading a crowd in yells. Cheering means hard but enjoyable daily practices, joking in the locker room, and the joy of winning and the tears of losing.

This year our cheerleaders have led us proudly through some of our favorite moments. They have deserved and they have earned our sincerest appreciation and admiration.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS, Front: Joyce Mourar, Second Row: J. Camp, M. Walsh, C. Keywell, K. Gillespie, S. Dufresne, T. True, B. Lunney, S. Walsh.

School Cheer

Rally Round the Flag, Boys

The Senior Play — 1969

The Senior Play, "Rally Round the Flag, Boys", with its popular fight scene, proved to be one of the great successes of the Superlative Class of 1969. Johnny DeLuca, the first freshman ever to perform in a Senior Play, played the inquisitive youngster who shot off the missile. When the final curtain went down, our class cheer rang out loud and clear. We, then, retreated to the cafeteria to celebrate the accomplishment of an experience which will be remembered as another one of our favorite things.

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to Miss Ann Garland for her successful direction and to Johnny DeLuca for the time he devoted to us. Thanks also go to Miss Weber and Mr. Clay for their help in making the set.

Junior Prom—69's Fasnatch

All dressed up and —

Puzzling the pieces, piecing the puzzle.

Mid-winter night's dream.

Will the real Jessie Camp please step forward?

"Snowflakes that fall on my nose and eyelashes"—these are our favorite memories when we recall our Junior Prom. Fäsnatch, the theme, was based on a Swiss holiday that combines dancing in the streets with winter-time contests. Our Fäsnatch held the same kind of romance as an Alpine Festival, from the ski lodge setting of the cafeteria to the crepe covered ceiling of the gymnasium. Our Prom queen, Jessie Camp, surveyed the scene from a crimson throne. She reigned over a winter-wonderland romance that lasted but a few hours but will be remembered for a lifetime.

Erasmus With Freckles

The Junior Play

In April 1968, the Junior Class made its stage debut performing "Erasmus With Freckles." It was a witty and happy comedy about a young mathematician who upset his family life by discovering a mistake in the annual statement of the Bank of America. This first play proved to be another success for the Class of 1969.

We wish to express our appreciation to Miss Garland who did a fine job in starting our dramatic experiences. Appreciation also goes to Miss Gaffney and Mr. Clay for their help in making the set.

Pinkerton's many clubs and staffs exist for varied reasons. Some function as service organizations while others provide their members with pure enjoyment. All enjoy active participation and each is a "favorite" for those who are involved.

We owe our thanks to the members of the faculty who have served as advisers to these groups. They have coordinated the activities which have left all of us with so many pleasant memories.

Football

Our Senior football season was an exciting, memory-filled time, climaxed by the Lebanon victory, 26-21, which broke Lebanon's tie for division lead. Somersworth, although it was a loss, was thrilling through to the last seconds of the game. Brady, Monadnock, and especially Exeter were gratifying wins. It was the first time in several years that we'd defeated Exeter.

Led by Captain Jon Zirpolo, the following Seniors helped to make the season one that we'll remember: Dave Goodwin, Dick Joyce, Steve Monas, Mark Montgomery, Glen Fellows, Norm McCarty, and Jim Zirpolo.

Four members of the Big Red – John Buffum and Seniors Glen Fellows, Jim Fenton, and Norm McCarty – were selected for the All-State Team. Glen Fellows was further honored by being elected tri-captain.

While the Seniors on the team were superlative, there are many underclassmen who promise spectacular seasons to come.

Pinkerton's basketball team, inexperienced as there were only three Seniors playing, proved a strong and surprising one nevertheless.

The season was exciting, although there were more losses than wins recorded. And the 7-11 record was a vast improvement over last year's ticket, 3-14. Offensively, Ray McCarty and Carl Hepworth handled the ball; on the backboards, stealing it back, were Brian Bailey and Louie Aboot. Chief playmaker was Norm McCarty. Others who saw action were John Buffum, Craig Moynihan, Kenneth Whitten, and the third Senior, Jim "Benjy" Fenton.

Coach Ek has high hopes for next year and expects to make winning more and more a habit.

One of the favorite sports for girls is basketball. This year many tried out for the team and, although the season was not very rewarding, the girls learned the importance of teamwork and good sportsmanship. Through the fine coaching of Miss Dean and Mrs. Guinesso, the girls practiced hard and learned the basic principles of basketball.

Even though there was only one victory, the girls are confident that next year there will be many more.

BASEBALL

Pinkerton's baseball team, recently boosted into Class L competition with the state's best teams, has been able to hold its own. Athletic Director Weston Root supervised the Varsity while Mr. Bostock coached the J.V. and Freshman teams.

The '69 season found only two senior lettermen returning but they were strongly backed by the underclassmen and enjoyed a successful season.

Front Row: J. Payne, G. Butterfield, J. Zirpolo, Mr. Root, J. Fenton, R. Joyce, D. Goodwin. Second Row: J. Tomaselli, G. Hartman, A. Benton, A. Smithurst, K. Whitten, B. Bailey, J. Perroni. Third Row: D. Daigle, J. Manning, C. Hepworth, D. Boudreau, G. Philbrook, D. Holaday.

TRACK

Track at Pinkerton is a relatively new sport but the teams continue to improve with each season. This year's team was strongest in field events and distance running. With the coaching of Mr. Degenhardt and Mr. Cross, Pinkerton once again participated in meets and state competition.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Cross country is an innovation that has rapidly become one of Pinkerton's favorite sports. Under the supervision of Mr. Degenhardt, the cross country team had a fine season led by Captain Ray McCarty and Bill Harnum.
